

Second conditional - exercise 1

<https://www.e-grammar.org/conditional-2-exercises-pdf/>

Key with answers

Exercise 1

If I knew his address, I could contact him.

If he wasn't ill, he could go skiing.

If he liked tomatoes, he would eat the salad.

I wouldn't travel on my own if I didn't speak English.

If we had enough room in our house, you could stay with us.

If you were lucky, you would win.

I wouldn't go to bed early if I didn't work so hard.

If I wasn't | weren't eighteen, I couldn't vote.

If you went to Corfu, you might like it.

You would manage it if you didn't panic.